Speed Plans for Dunbar School Job

Plans for the new Dunbar elementary school were submitted to the State Finance Commission last week as the Bay County Separate Municipal District moves ahead with construction program with aid of state funds for the superintendent J. D. McChesney and Charles Proffers, architect, were in Jackson to check preliminary plans for the project and Proffers is busy incorporating suggested changes into plans. As soon as final drawings are approved, the state is to assign a bid date for a building.

A special session last night, the city school board with three of its five members present, gave formal approval to an agreement with the state necessary for the of $56,622 in state funds for the Dunbar school. W. P. Henderson was president pro tem in the absence of Wayne Alliston, board member. Alton Siren moved to accept the contract and J. W. McChesney seconded it. The other member present was Maurice

Watts questioned the wisdom of the board acting on the home economics case without a meeting and Board Attorney J. Favre Jr. advised it would be better to wait. McChesney, however, observed that the board had specified that item be acted on as a routine the budget and application for aid in vocational home economics was carried.

Board Hears Vocational Studies Head

The director of vocational education for the State Department of Education met with the Hancock County school board at North Central High School last Friday night to go over plans for the vocational agriculture curricula to be offered there in the fall.

H. E. Mauldin Jr., the state official, outlined the possibilities in this field but made no recommendations as to what the local authorities should do, according to Superintendent E. E. Breland. It was his first meeting with the board.

The session originally had been scheduled for last Thursday night to set up the transportation system for the 1959-60 year but was postponed until Friday so Mauldin could appear. The board then recessed until 9 a.m., Saturday to take up the transportation question.

Correction
In the announcement of candidacy for sheriff of H. (Bully) Zengering, published in the Sea Coast Echo last week, it was erroneously stated he served two months overseas in World War II. It should have read 20 months.

District Legion Elects Gayaut

A number of members of the Clement R. Bontemps Post 139, American Legion, and its auxiliary, were in Hattiesburg last weekend to attend the district spring conference.

Among those motoring over for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert D. Gayaut Jr., Russell Elliott, Felix Seeger Jr., John Rutherford Jr., Neilus Rhodes, Sidney Bourgeois, Miss Beula Rossignol, Lucien Kidd, Polly Green and Henry Ososnach.

Gayaut was elected District 1 area commander with Albert S. Johnson III of Pascagoula named 9th district commander and Lionel Keel of Gulfport the district vice commander. Mrs. John Foley of Biloxi was named to head the district auxiliary with Mrs. Luther Ruble of Gulfport as vice president.

Recognition was given to the Bay St. Louis auxiliary unit as the largest in the state and the entire group made plans for the national convention in Minneapolis, Minn., in August when the Mississippi delegation will lead the parade with Miss America, Miss Mary Ann Mobley.

Two Deaths Hike County Road Toll

Deaths of two persons injured last week in traffic accidents in Hancock County brought the county's toll to seven in 1959.

Mrs. Alma Jacobway, 71 year old Orange, Tex. resident, died about 11 a.m., Tuesday in Hancock County Hospital of injuries sustained in a two car head-on collision May 13 in front of Scaffidi's Wheel Inn Service Station on U. S. 90.

She had remained in "very critical condition" and unconscious since the accident. Her injuries were listed as severe internal and leg injuries.

Three other persons injured in the accident are reported to be improving.

The other fatality, Eddie Henry, Kiln negro, died Sunday in a New Orleans hospital. Henry received a possible "broken back" and spinal injuries in the one-car collision the week before on Kiln Road.

He was taken to Hancock County Hospital for emergency treatment and transferred to Biloxi Veterans Administration Hospital before being transferred to the New Orleans hospital later in the week.

Dogs To Get Rabies Shots On Saturday

Innoculation against rabies of Waveland dogs got under way Wednesday as the town prepared to begin enforcement of its recently adopted ordinance designed to curb stray canines.

About 50 pets were brought by their owners to the Town Hall where Dr. L. C. Schantz, Mississippi City veterinarian, had come to handle the shots. Mrs. James Mayfield assisted. He is scheduled to return Saturday from 1 to 3 p.m. for those unable to bring in their dogs on Wednesday.

Town officials expressed hope that residents will make use of the veterinarian's visit to Hancock County and save themselves the trip to his home office to get shots for their dogs.

Enforcement of the new law, adopted May 12, begins June 1 with Joe Bourgeois serving as dog catcher. A pound has been constructed adjacent to the water tower where all dogs found at large without rabies inoculation tags on their collars will be taken. They will be retained for a five-day period should the owner want to claim them and have rabies shots given.

The ordinance resulted from a series of complaints on the number of strays in the community, creating the threat of a rabies outbreak.

Addresses Coast Chamber Smith View Dim On U.S. 90 Here

State Highway Commissioner John D. Smith held out little hope for growth in Hancock County in the next two decades Wednesday night when he told the Coast Council of Chambers of Commerce that U. S. 90 between Pearl River and Route 43 would not serve more than 250 automobiles a day.

Addressing the gathering in Biloxi, the Southern district commissioner told of the restrictions imposed on road construction by the amount of money available from the state.

He has an allocation of $2,400,000 annually for primary road construction, Smith explained, which finances work on two other highways in addition to U. S. 90.

He estimated it would cost $3,300,000 to four-lane U.S. 90 across the coast, and cited plans for the new interstate route north of here upon which he apparently based his predictions of future traffic volume for the Hancock County portion of the route.

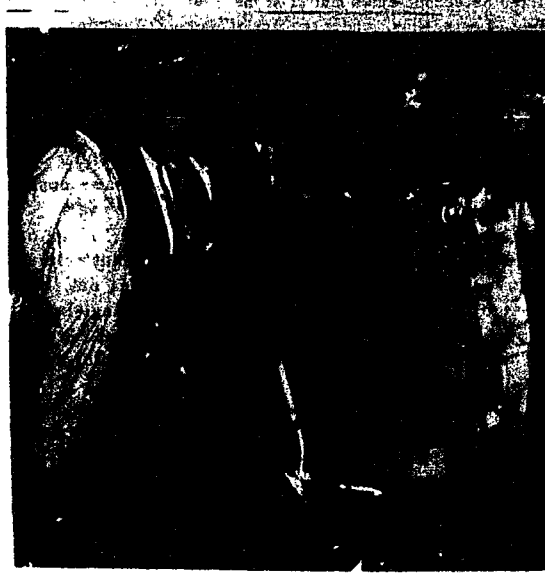

It is now planned to four-lane U. S. 90 from Ocean Springs east to Pascagoula. Last night Smith told of plans to four-lane U. S. 49 from Gulfport to Jackson. Questioned as to the present traffic count on U. S. 49 as compared to U. S. 90, Smith said U. S. 90 at present carried much the greater traffic. He added that he felt an improved U. S. 49 would bring more tourists to the Gulf Coast from the midwest, and this was his reason for planning the four-lane U. S. 49.

Henry Ososnach of Bay St. Louis, council president, asked to be relieved of the chair in order that he might speak as safety committee chairman for the Chamber group. He explained to Smith that much of the desire for four-lane U. S. 90 is based on safety needs and remarked that the commissioner's comments on construction had no bearing on that factor.

Ososnach suggested that resurfacing of the old 90, still in existence from the bridge to the weighing station, would give Hancock County a better road.

Remodeling Near Finished at City Tax, Gas Offices

Remodeling of the city tax and gas collection offices in City Hall "are almost complete," Commissioner J. Cyril Glover said today.

"We only have to install air-conditioning and buy some additional furniture to complete modernization and enlargement of the offices," Commissioner Glover noted.

Cost of the project will run between $10,000 and $12,000 and will be paid out of profits in the gas collection funds with no additional cost to the taxpayer, the Commissioner explained.

Part of the offices were occupied formerly by the Hancock County Health Department.

Legion Plans Political Rally

The first major political rally in Hancock County preceding the year's August Democratic primary is scheduled at 6 p.m. Monday at the American Legion Home on South Beach Boulevard, Joseph Benvenuti, chairman for the occasion, has announced.

Acceptances already have been received from two of the gubernatorial candidates, Charles Sullivan and Carroll Gartin, who have been invited to speak.

An open invitation is being extended to all candidates to be present. A master of ceremonies will be chosen in the next few days, Benvenuti said. Refreshments and music will be furnished.

Political Rally Set at Dedeaux

A political rally is scheduled to begin at 10 a.m. June 7 at the R. G. Ladner place, one and a half miles east of the Dedeaux School. It was announced this week.

All candidates for office in Hancock and Harrison Counties are invited to attend along with those seeking state offices.

Good Selling Held Vital To Industry Development

Henry Maddox, director of the Mississippi Agricultural and Industrial Board, Jackson, told the Board of Supervisors Monday that to promote industrial development in Hancock County, the county must first prepare itself for development and must be able to "do a good selling job" on itself.

Maddox came to Bay St. Louis at the request of the county's industrial committee headed by A. G. Dantagnan, local realtor. Also on the committee are John J. McDonald, Norton Haas Jr., E. M. Brignac Jr., Leo W. Seal Jr., A. C. Berckes, and H. H. Shattuck.

The committee is in the midst of preparing a labor survey which, Dantagnan told the board, should be ready in "about two weeks". In addition to the labor survey, the committee hopes to prepare a brochure presenting an overall picture of the county.

"Until we have this brochure prepared and made available to prospective industry, nothing can be done here as far as industrial development is concerned," Dantagnan continued.

The brochure would be similar to ones prepared by other communities and would contain information on utilities, available sites, description of climate, population, type government, tax schedules and assessment data, educational, religious, health, and banking facilities, hotels and restaurants, housing, labor, labor strike history, availability of community to transportation including highways, rail, bus, water, and air, municipal facilities, natural resources, civic clubs, zoning regulations,

Formal announcements also were forthcoming in the last several days from two candidates for state highway commissioner from the Southern district, the post now held by John Smith.

Willard Richardson

Seeking to oust the incumbent are B. C. Barton of Wiggins, a veteran highway engineer, and Willard Richardson of Pascagoula who is campaigning with the slogan "Go to the Polls and Free the Tolls."

Hoffa-Labor's Headache

There are many aspects to laws concerning the relationship between employees and their employers. At present, labor unions are specifically removed from the field of anti-trust legislation although such laws apply to business men and most others.

There may be more than one side to the criticism of James Hoffa, head of the Teamsters' union, but neither Hoffa nor his attorneys have ever brought it out. His threat of a nationwide strike over proposed legislation that might include labor unions under anti-trust laws is the best reason we have so far seen advanced for such legislation.

There is no doubt that some change in the laws dealing with labor unions is needed; there is no doubt that Hoffa, Dave Beck and the Teamsters' union (primarily its officials) contributed to this need; nor now is there any doubt that the officials of the Teamsters' union have done disservice to the labor unions of this country.

President George Meany, of the merged AFL-CIO, apparently recognized that Hoffa's threat of a strike should strengthen rather than weaken proposed legislation dealing with labor unions when, according to the Associated Press, he said Hoffa could count on no support from the AFL-CIO in carrying out the strikethreat. He even went further and said that the threat was "a pretty good indication, if any indication was needed before, that we were perfectly right in kicking Hoffa and his union out of the AFL-CIO."

The fact remains that had the old AFL and CIO properly policed their unions as to honesty and gangsterism, Hoffa could not make his present threat.

The Echo hopes Senator John McClellan of Arkansas and not Senator John Kennedy of Massachusetts has his way on proposed labor legislation. Hoffa is the only reason needed.

Another Step Forward

It has been a long time since this editor graduated from any academic institution, even graduate school, but he still remembers his weak knees during final examinations and his excitement on getting a diploma.

Any graduation is a step up the ladder not only of education but also of maturity and progress. For some it may not be as big a step as for others, but to all it signifies an achievement.

Graduates in the year 1959 appear to be both doubly blessed and cursed. In many ways this period is one of great opportunity with dangerous possibilities, national and international, economic, social and physical.

The Echo, its editor and its staff congratulate those from Hancock County who are graduating whether from grammar school, high school or college. We wish them the best of luck in whatever course they pursue.

Informative Ads

Three advertisements in last week's Echo deserve notation by Hancock County people. One of them, from Southern Bell T. & T., points up the need for those who wish changes in their telephone directory to call its business office right away. Another, that of Mississippi Power Company, is the last in a series and points up the part electric power plays in the growth of a community or state. The third is the advertisement of the Hancock Bank discussing inflation.

While these three firms advertise and sell different things, they all relate to the possibilities of growth in this area and in the case of the Hancock Bank, dangers of government growth at the expense of those whose assets are in many forms, whether bank deposits, government bonds or insurance.

Information beyond prices can frequently be gleaned from good advertising.

Poppy Day

Hancock County has an outstanding post of the American Legion. It also has an outstanding auxiliary of the American Legion. Both are active, many membered and well organized.

This Saturday, May 23, is Poppy Day. Funds contributed by citizens who wear the traditional poppy constitute the biggest source of revenue for the American Legion Auxiliary. It is with these funds that the Legion Auxiliary helps in the rehabilitation of veterans and in their child welfare work.

There are other good reasons, some sentimental, such as remembrance of the Americans who died during our war, or the employment of disabled veterans who make these flowers. But could be advanced for contributing on Saturday, but reason enough is the work of Hancock County's Auxiliary of the American Legion.

Letters To the Editor

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:
Yesterday I took my small children to what is laughingly called a "beach" here in Bay St. Louis, at Ulman Avenue, and I must say this "beach" is a disgrace to the community.

Is this our "tourist attraction"—an ill-kept, dirty stretch of shell-filled sand covered with rusty beer cans, bottle tops and piles of broken glass. If anybody profits from this beach, it will be the doctors, for stitching cut feet, and administering penicillin and tetanus shots to our little ones who go to the beach to play in that trash pile.

A little further up the beach, the sand is nothing but green slime covered with moss where the city's drainage system empties out into the water where our children swim. There is a tree alongside the road with old cast off clothes flopping in its branches where someone who never heard of a trash burner or

Young American Writes On Heritage, Importance

"We may be criticized and envied but we've got a fighting spirit that won't quit and a trunk full of heritage to guard."

So wrote a St. Joseph's Academy student, Linda French of Henderson Point, in her winning composition on Our American Heritage and Its Importance Today sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary.

"If you have other ideas of how to live, that's all well and good but as for beating us—never," writes this young American. "We're Americans and that's our secret weapon."

Americans have something more than those inalienable rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, she continues. Our ideal of existence has been both widely criticized and highly envied by men from every country in the world.

The difference of this nation started "the day we realized we were human beings, not puppets, and so, rebellious baby America cut loose from mother England's apron strings. Our spirit was born from the determination of our forefathers not to go crawling home to her skeptical parent. There were hardships but it was a cheap price to pay for life as we wanted to live it."

"We enjoyed a new found freedom from oppression by harsh tyrants. Here we learned that nothing will cheat us of our rights—ever. We'd fight for what we believe in—and fight we did—from 1812 to Korea and we'll keep right on as long as there's injustice in the world."

As she discusses the "pursuit of happiness," Linda points to the battle which has made America rich. "Life wasn't always tree-lined streets, two-car garages and color TV—it still isn't in some cases."

"Sure we're criticized. There have always been power-mad a rummage sale threw them from the beach road."

The city could have saved money on the large trash cans neatly painted with the words "Don't be a litter-bug". Who needs trash cans? We have a beach to throw our trash on. Mrs. Leida Carver 340 St. John St. Bay St. Louis, Miss.

fanatics with warped ideas who have tried to twist truth into distortion and cause disharmony. They have even tried to start wars—but let them try. Try is all they may for as long as there's an American alive, there will be someone to fight for peace."

UNITED'S LONG-RANGE INVESTMENTS ASSURE

GAS for the Growing Gulf South

The cost of dependable natural gas is one of the smallest items in the family budget... but the investment back of that service is enormous. United Gas, for example, has invested an average of nearly $80 million annually over the last ten years in wells, pipelines, compressor stations and other property and equipment.

These are the facilities necessary to provide gas to meet the increasing fuel needs of this fast-growing area we term the Gulf South. Much of this investment—the "buried treasure"—is located under the surface of the earth, where people never see it. But it's there just the same—working around the clock to assure dependable natural gas service to every customer we serve.

IN ANNOUNCING MY CANDIDACY FOR THE HIGH OFFICE HIGHWAY COMMISSIONER

Southern District

I do so with deep humility and realizing the great responsibility that will confront the successful candidate. It is my sincere desire to serve my Country and State and Community, not for personal gain, but in order that I might play a small part in the great industrial growth of our State. It was once said by James F. Clark, "A politician thinks of the next election; a statesman of the next generation—a politician looks for the success of his party; a statesman of that of his Country—the statesman wishes to steer, while the politician is satisfied to drift." If elected your Commissioner, I pledge my support and that of my staff to the local and public officials and my doors shall at all times be open to my constituents and they shall have my full cooperation in any endeavor they might undertake for the betterment of the City or Community.

I shall at all times give my full cooperation to the Board of Supervisors and the construction and building of roads, realizing that our industrial progress rests primarily with that of a good road system. I believe by all working harmoniously together discharging our duty thoroughly and well, subordinating personal desires to principal, and personal ambition to an exalted love of State and Country, we will not only receive the endorsement of the people, but will rest with assurance for the job well done. We have no room in our system of Government for complacency and I shall at all times strive to give the people the best system of roads in the United States.

I was reared in Neshoba County receiving my high school education in the rural schools of that County and later attending East Central Junior College of Decatur, Mississippi.

I received my law education at Washington College of Law in Washington D. C. and the Jackson School of Law, Jackson, Mississippi.

While in Washington D. C. I was employed by the Federal Housing Authority, and from there I entered the service in 1941 and was discharged November 11, 1945, serving overseas in the European Theater with the 80th Infantry Division and was awarded the Purple Heart and Presidential Unit Citation.

After returning from the war, I was associated with various insurance companies in an executive capacity and was later appointed to the position of Deputy State Fire Marshal of the State of Mississippi. After serving in this capacity for a number of years, I became actively engaged in the practice of law and am now a member of the firm of Simmerman, Richardson & Faggard.

I live and own my home in Gautier, Mississippi. I am a Presbyterian and married to the former Mary Ruth Horn of Leake County and to this marriage one daughter was born. I am a member of the State Bar Association, the American Bar Association, the Jackson County Bar Association, and the Elks, and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the American Legion, and a member of the National Order of the Coedles, an honorary organization of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

I am Past Senior Vice-Commander of No. 3378, Elmer Joseph Grant Post and now serving in the capacity of Post Judge Advocate, and charter member of the Mississippi Peace Officers Association.

In undertaking this campaign, which covers 30 counties, I do so with the realization of a huge task that confronts me. I know that I cannot reach all of you personally, but I will endeavor to do so through the medium of the press and television. I also realize that this campaign is beyond the control of one man only, but depends largely on the influence of friends and public spirited citizens who believe in the cause of good sound government.

I earnestly solicit your vote and influence. I leave this thought as once spoken by William Jennings Bryan, "The humblest in all the land when clad in the armor of a righteous cause is stronger than all the hosts of error."

Respectfully submitted

Form Softball League

Dick Merritt was elected president of the new Bay St. Louis softball league at its organizational meeting last Thursday night.

Other officers named were Frank Trapani, vice president; Charles Carter Jr., secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Bea Georgi, publicity chairman.

June 2 was set as the tentative starting date for league play when the officers and team sponsors met again Tuesday night to map plans for the season.

Eight sponsors have signed up for adult teams and it is proposed to play double headers every Tuesday and Thursday night, thus giving every team one game each week.

Several squads are expected to meet teams from other communities their off nights, and later they may expand to three nights a week of home play.

The league will operate under supervision of the city parks and playgrounds commission.

Nineteen persons attended the organizational meeting last week at which Henry Monti presided until officers were elected, Mrs. Theo Tudury, commission chairman, was on hand with Trapani, Gasper Maurigi, Jimmie Laroux, John Ladner, Buddy Pitalo, Charles Carter Jr., Lucas Puchea, W. Sponsors will be Trapani of Knock-Knock; Carter of Regal Beer; Knights of Columbus represented by Stieffel; Merritt and Johnston, realtors; Mrs. Georgi and the Bay St. Louis Youth Center which will field high school graduates and 12th graders.

Second Dove Season Seen

Delegates to a state meeting of the Rod and Gun Club in Jackson May 12 were promised a second dove season starting either Oct. 15 or Nov. 1.

Jack Ladner, president of the Hancock County club, said, "It is the best meeting we have ever attended and we are pleased with the results."

Accompanying Ladner were Neilus Rhodes, Bert Stieffel, and Leonard Ladner.

An appropriation of $1,500,000 from the state legislature will be sought by the State Fish and Game Commission to improve preserves throughout the state.

Ladner said, noting that the commission is self-supported and needs the appropriation to build these preserves.

The commission had promised earlier to construct a duck preserve in Clermont Harbor. Ladner reported the preserve will be irrigated with artesian water and stocked with wild rice. No dates for completion were available.

B. C. BATSON ANNOUNCES FOR HIGHWAY COMMISSIONER (Southern District)

I have qualified with the Secretary of State as a candidate for the office of Highway Commissioner of the Southern District of the State of Mississippi and take this means of informing the voters.

I was born and now live in Wiggins, Stone County. I am a member of the Baptist Church, a Rotarian, and veteran of World War I, and am affiliated with several trade associations, member of Mississippi Society of Professional Engineers and National Society of Professional Engineers. My principal hobby is tree farming.

I married Sallie Hartness of Leake County and we have four children: Brax and Hubert, both graduate engineers; Elizabeth Ann, now Mrs. J. S. Barber, and Joyce, now Mrs. Frank B. Watts, who are both M.S.C.W. graduates. We have twelve grand-children.

I have been in engineering or construction work since 1921; having graduated from Mississippi A and M College in 1920. This work has been very diversified; municipal, county, State Highway Department and U. S. Engineers. Such work has included work on water, sewer and streets for town, county roads and bridges; seventeen years of maintenance, location and construction with the Mississippi State Highway Department; wharfs, roads, fortifications, buildings, sewer and water for U. S. Engineers during World War II; railroad work, surveys, and supervision of construction for individuals and companies.

I am now doing the engineering for a sewerage system for Town of Lumberton, which is under construction. I feel that I am old enough (60 years) and have had enough of the right kind of experience to qualify me to represent the people of South Mississippi on the Highway Commission.

The Highway Commissioner is an officer of importance in this day of automotive travel and I approach the office with an awareness of the responsibilities that accompany it. I will endeavor to set my policies and decisions for the good of the whole people rather than the individual. I will make a strong appeal for votes to the big majority of people who have no selfish interest—no axe to grind—except a desire to have a good system of roads and then well administered. To these people I will promise to be of service if elected.

To those who have only a selfish interest in this election, please do not expect me to be bound by a vote to do imprudent things.

To the employees of the Highway Department who feel that your loyalty to the Department demands and your better judgment dictates that you vote for the incumbent candidate then that is what you should do, but if your best judgment says otherwise then you should be fearless. However, if elected there will be no political reprisals and no collection from employees for campaign expenses, as there has been in the past.

To the contractor I would say that I want first that you make a reasonable profit from your operation but deliver to the people a good workmanlike road. I will recommend higher liquidated damages for not completing a job on scheduled time. When money is allocated for a road the people should have the use of the completed road as soon as possible. I will not exact a tribute from anyone.

To those who tell me I cannot win from the present organization, I say that if and when an organization becomes so strong that the voters are intimidated by it then it is time for the people to rise up and vote it out.

I respectfully solicit your support.

(P. C. Pol. Ad.)

Bus Fails, Unexpected Guests

Main Street Methodist Church played the part of the proverbial St. Bernard dog to a group of seventh and eighth grade pupils from Waltham School in Webster County who were stranded here early this week when their school bus broke down returning from a sight-seeing tour to New Orleans.

The piston went bad about 7 a.m. Monday morning west of the weighing station on U. S. 90. When repairs had not been completed that afternoon, one of the teachers remembered that Mrs. A. M. Ellison Jr., wife of the Methodist pastor, was a native of Webster County, and sent her an SOS.

The youngsters and their five teachers then were brought to the fellowship hall of the church to get out of the rain and ended up spending the night. The bus finally was fixed Tuesday and they started home again about 7 p.m. that day, just as their school superintendent and some others from there were getting on the road to come to the Bay and get them.

BIG DIFFERENCE

IN ECONOMY

Plymouth, traditional economy champ, again won its class in the Mobilgas Economy Run... won for the third straight year! In this recognized competitive test for economy, a Plymouth V-8 averaged 21.15 miles per gallon. Plymouth's proven high gas mileage, initial low purchase price, low maintenance cost and good resale value all add up to the Big Difference in economy!

PLYMOUTH DELIVERS BIG DIFFERENCE IN PERFORMANCE

But you don't have to sacrifice performance to enjoy Plymouth's top economy. The Fury V-800 engine that powered the Plymouth to its Mobilgas victory is the biggest standard V-8 in Plymouth's field. Its 230 horsepower packs plenty of power.

BIG DIFFERENCE IN QUALITY

We sincerely believe that the '59 Plymouth is the finest car Plymouth has ever built. Check every inch of this car. See the difference great engineering makes.

TAKE A "TWO-MILE TRY-OUT" NOW!

Get behind the wheel of a Plymouth and really feel Plymouth's Big Difference. Take your "Try-Out" soon.

To be fully appreciated, must be driven...

BIG DIFFERENCE IN RIDE

Plymouth's famous Torsion-Aire Ride is the most comfortable ride on the road. It acts as a built-in road-leveler - it virtually eliminates roll or sway on turns - front end dive on stops. And it's yours at no extra cost on Plymouth.

BUT YOU DON'T PAY FOR THE DIFFERENCE

The top-selling, low-price cars are all priced about the same but only PLYMOUTH gives you the Big Difference for your money.

Use as Drag Strip is Proposed for Airport

Three representatives of Drag Racing, Inc. of New Orleans, appeared before the board of supervisors Monday with plans for a proposed drag racing strip which, they suggested, might be located at the Hancock County Airport.

The men, Richard Schmidt, Rancier Ellinger and Gordon Novel, were presented to the supervisors by A. G. Dantagman, chairman of the county's Industrial Committee, and showed the sketches of a proposed strip.

They explained that the races would be held once a month on Sunday and would not interfere with air traffic since all vehicles participating in races could be cleared from the strip in "about a minute."

Some 3,400 feet is needed for the strip while the airport runway is only 2,900 feet so that the county would have to lengthen the strip. Dantagman said he felt confident that any other lands required could be leased from adjacent property owners.

"This strip would be a great asset to Hancock County," Schmidt said. "It would provide the only such facilities on the Coast. The nearest is located at Hammond, La., and draws large crowds during each afternoon of racing from, not only the surrounding areas, but from all parts of the country. The strip here could accommodate some 5,000 spectators and would feature every safety device required by the licensing agencies and the national drag racing rules."

Sam Favre, attorney for the board, explained that the county is not permitted to enter such a proposition except on a lease basis. It could not, he noted, actually operate the strip on a percentage basis.

A film of the National Drag Racing Championships was shown the supervisors.

No decision was made but the proposition under advisement and investigation all facets of it.

Griffin Wins Finals Borth in Golf Match

Dr. John Griffin of Bay St. Louis will make his debut in the championship flight finals when he plays Woody Waggoner for the Pass Christian Isles Golf Club this weekend.

Griffin scored a 3 and 2 decision over Al Hachett in the semi-finals after holding a five hole lead through the 11th hole. Hachett narrowed his lead on the back side, ending the par-four 15th hole when he holed out a chip shot to keep the match alive.

Waggoner triumphed D. Hachett, 5 and 3, in the upper bracket of the championship flight.

In the women's championship, being played simultaneously, Miss Margaret Erwin advanced to the finals with a 5 and 4 victory over Miss Ann Liversedge. She will play Mrs. Powell Glass Jr., who advanced with a bye, for the title.

In the men's Class B flight semi-finals, John David edged O. P. Adams, 1 up, while G. Scooper breezed past Walter J. Phillips, 8 and 6, David now meets Scooper.

C. Spence defeated Jim McDonald, 2 and 1, in the Class C flight, winning the right to play Herman Ranshaw, who beat Dr. Walter Rouse, 5 and 4.

Miss C. Pancher and Mrs. John David play for the Class B title in the women's tournament. Miss Pancher defeated E. Dantagman while Mrs. David trimmed Miss Maud Frye, 3 and 2.

It took Mrs. Walter Russo and Mrs. Richard Merritt 19 holes to win their finals slot in Class C. Mrs. Russo ousted Mrs. Grady Riggan while Mrs. Merritt won over Mrs. Walter Getz.

Semi-finalists in Class D, for nine-hole players, also went extra holes to win with Mrs. Warren Easton defeating Mrs. Guy Baffin on the 10th and Mrs. John Ellis stopping Mrs. Howard Adams.

The second medal play handicap tournament for women golfers at Pass Christian Isles Golf Club will be played the weekend of June 6-7 and June 13-14. Mrs. John David, tournament chairman, has announced.

The permanent rotating trophy, along with a miniature to remain in the winner's possession, will be awarded for the low net score at 36 holes.

Nine holes may be played June 6 with the second nine on June 7 if the player does not elect to play an 18-hole round. The same schedule will prevail the following weekend.

Medal Handicap Tournament Set For PCI Women

Trapp's Knock-Knock softball team was victorious twice last week.

In an exhibition game played on the city's diamond at Uman and Dumber Avenue, Trapp's defeated Southern Realty's team a rousing 18-5.

Southern Realty's team is sponsored by Dick Merritt and Bill Johnson.

Monday night, the Knock-Knock team squeaked a 10-9 victory out of Fayard's Electric Co.'s sluggers in a Pass Christian League game.

Local residents can see the games in the local park played nearly every Sunday afternoon.

Play Rained Out

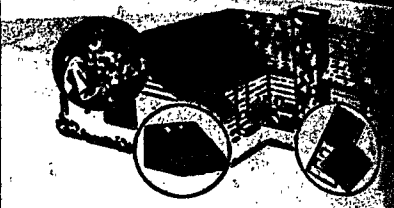

The weekly ladies' day tournament Tuesday at Pass Christian Isles Golf Club was rained out but a number of members were on hand for the luncheon at noon. Mrs. Grady Riggan will be hostess for the luncheon next Tuesday.

Brainwash Woe Told

"We are all to blame for what happened to the American soldiers in Korea who fell under the most effective weapon the Communists have, that of brainwashing," Don McCulloch, told the Christ Episcopal Day School Parent-Teacher Association, on May 12.

McCulloch, director of advertising, public relations, and safety for Mississippi Power Co., presented the same lecture he gave to representatives of large industries at a meeting of the Freedom Forum in Searcy, Ark., based on extensive surveys made by army psychiatrists under the direction of Maj. William Mayer, it was revealed that GIs who fought in the Korean Conflict were better trained than their brothers of earlier wars and had higher IQs and were better educated. Despite this, McCulloch brought out, of every 10 prisoners captured, four died. There were no organized escape attempts; there was no great loyalty between either the prisoners themselves or to their loved ones at home or to their country.

A Communist evaluation of the prisoners showed they had weak loyalties, hazy and ill-formed concepts; opportunist manifestations; lack of self confidence; were ignorant of social values; were provincial; and had a great lack of discipline.

"The responsibility of avoiding a repetition of this lies with us as parents. We should teach our children loyalty, initiative, perseverance, and a good set of principles, at home, in our schools, and in our churches," McCulloch declared.
